To whom it may concern

On behalf of the Russia office of the International Republican Institute it is my pleasure to thank MBS Intellect Services Translation Agency and Mr. Mikhail Stepanov personally for the translation services rendered to IRI.

IRI has been a client of MBS Intellect Services since 1992, and has had more than one opportunity to appreciate exceptional quality of services provided by this company and its ability to meet tough deadlines.

MBS Intellect Services Translation Agency is one of the fastest growing and most dynamic companies in the market of professional translation and interpretation services. Throughout the years of its existence, it has immensely expanded its client base by adding other services, like copying or business consulting as demanded by the customers, always putting customer satisfaction in the first place. The core group of its "old" customers are international companies, international and Russian non-governmental organizations, Russian Federal governmental agencies.

I want to use this opportunity to wish further success to this outstanding company and it is my pleasure to recommend them to other clients both in the NGO and business sector.

Sincerely,
